

Teach Local Fellowship

Learning Modules

During the summer, Teach Local Fellows explore each learning module while completing the Reclaiming Our Identity course. During the year, they revisit these modules in the form of monthly workshops.

MODULE 1: INTRODUCTION TO IDENTITY COURSE, AND FRAMEWORK

How identity is constructed through our everyday interactions with society?

MODULE 2: NAVIGATING POWER, PRIVILEGE & OPPRESSION

What is your proximity to power and privilege and how do each of them influence oppression?

MODULE 3: EDUCATION'S INFLUENCE ON IDENTITY

How have education-based laws, policies, and practices played a role in student identity development?

MODULE 4: CRAFTING POSITIONALITY AND SOCIAL LOCATION

How has the intersectionality of your identity and experiences shaped who you are as a person?

MODULE 5: RECLAIMING MY NARRATIVE

What are ways to tell your individual or collective story from your lens and through your culture?

MODULE 6: CARRYING MY IDENTITY INTO THE CLASSROOM

How do you leverage your classroom to tell your story and be an authentic educator?

MODULE 7: WHOLISTIC STORYTELLING

What role does identity play in developing schoolwide narratives to engage students?

MODULE 8: RESEARCH PROJECT & PRESENTATION

What is a problem in education that can be addressed through the work of identity development?
